

Please protect the "No Call list". The quality of life has been improved for our family, not having those annoying phone calls interrupting our limited time together.